

It is difficult to talk much about our situation but thank you to the donors who make the operation of Crossroads of Crawford County possible

Without their encouragement when it was too dark to

I think we would have given up

In the background, another person wearing a green sweater is partially visible. To the right, a white sign with black text is placed on a wooden surface. A pair of glasses with a dark frame is resting on the sign above the text.

Mom had to move fairly soon after dad died because it changed her income drastically. Crossroads was there to help her find housing that ended up being perfect for her, and they help her with things that makes her life easier. We really like that they encourage her to do healthy things she would likely neglect if they were not there.

Dear Donor

I moved in with my aging mother to take care of her as she physically was not able to get around very well

I called Crossroads to check on their caregiver support program. Just talking with someone who understood and recognized my exhaustion gave me energy and hope.

I am elated to hear that they want to build the program for caregivers.

I am so grateful for donors who will make this happen.

Everything was wrong timing about my pregnancy
-I was in an unhealthy relationship, little money or direction for my future, and I wasn't ready to meet the challenge of being a "mom".

When Crossroads helped me understand how healthy adoption works, it was a game changer. I am now a proud birthmother who loves to share about the awesome family I placed with and watch my son grow up without the commitment
I wasn't ready for.

I HADN'T THOUGHT OF HOW VITAL SERVICE FOR UNPLANNED AND DIFFICULT PREGNANCIES WOULD BE FOR OUR COMMUNITY UNTIL I REFERRED A YOUNG WOMAN OVER TO CROSSROADS.

FROM DAY TO DAY HER THOUGHTS SHIFTED ON WHAT TO DO, AND SHE HAD NO ONE TO HELP HER MAKE THE DECISIONS THAT WERE IN THE PATH AHEAD FOR HER.

I KNOW CROSSROADS SPENT A GOOD DEAL OF TIME ENCOURAGING HER AND TALKING THROUGH THE REALITIES OF HER ULTIMATE DECISION...
